

Table of Contents

Volume 6, Spring 2021
Liberation Theology and Adult Education

Introduction

From the Editors

Joni Schwartz, Lisa Merriweather, Rodney Maiden, Edith Gnanadass 1

Introduction

Peter McLaren 3

Full-length Manuscripts

Liberating Faith and the Journey of Inconclusion: A Close Reading of Paulo Freire's Essay "My Faith and Hope" 8
Lionnell Smith

Acting Out the Shared Heritage: Towards A Pedagogical Model for Liberatory Education 22
Sydney Marie Simone Curtis

Gutierrez's Concepts of Individualism and Equality as Related to Similar Concepts of Karl Marx and John Dewey 37
Jeffrey Zacharakis

Historic and Contemporary Influences on Reading the Bible with the Poor: Liberation Theology and Poor People's Movements 50
Jessica C. Williams & Susan M. Yelich Biniecki

Challenging Socio-Economic Marginalization: Freire's Influence in Rural Uganda 65
Fred Jenga

Activism in the University: Opportunities for Reflective Dialogue 83
Nadine Wedderburn & Dianne Ramdeholl

Spiritus Est qui Vivificat: Mass Incarceration, Social Justice and the Spiritan Mission 96
The Elsinore Bennu Think Tank for Restorative Justice

Chinese Facilitators' Transformative Learning in a Community-Based SEL Study 110
Xiangyan Liu

Reflections

- Transformational Power of Theatre of the Oppressed with Marginalized Students* 126
Stefanie Sertich

Book Review & Resources

- A Pedagogy of Faith: The Theological Vision of Paulo Freire* 133
Andrea F. Emmanuel
- Postdigital Dialogues on Critical Pedagogy, Liberation Theology and Information Technology* 134
Joni Schwartz